

How do neighbouring countries interact and stay unique?

(First World War and Electricity)

Due in: once a week

Total activities to complete this term: 6

Remembering	Understanding	Applying	Analysing	Creating	Evaluating
Create a timeline of events for WWI.	Imagine you are King George V who is on the radio telling the country that we have entered the First World War. What would your speech be?	Draw a map of the street you live on with different landmarks. Use a key.	To research a question of your choice (e.g. What is your favourite colour?) with people at home using a tally chart. Present that information in a bar chart or pictogram	A tank or gas mask using materials. (Junk modelling)	Write a newspaper report about a bombing on your street during WWI
Times tables practise - 15 mins a week	Design a quiz about electricity to test your classmates/	Imagine you are a soldier in the war, write a poem about your experiences.	Research what life was like for a child during WWI - write a diary entry.	Create a 'keeping safe with electricity' poster	Explain which Paragon has been your favourite unit and why